UNION NEWS

Lake Union president shares miracle of obtaining site for mega health clinic

Valentine shared the story of procuring Lucas Oil Stadium for the Session. Owned not by the city, but by an individual, the stadium was originally priced beyond their budget, so the committee gathered and fasted with prayer for two weeks. They asked God not just to bring the cost within their budget, but to simply make their use of the stadium of no cost to the church. READ MORE

Prominent theologians speak at 'Jesus and Politics' conference

Over 100 people registered to attend the Oct. 17-19 event (some from as far away as California, Canada and Africa) and a few hundred Andrews University students also attended. The focus of the conference was how Jesus in his time on earth served the less fortunate, and how Adventists tend to avoid an involvement in politics, yet we have a duty to help others. Elementary students learn door-to-door evangelism

This initiative called “Magabooking” is an outreach of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. “This fundraiser not only gives the youth a chance to share wonderful family- friendly books, but also enables them to learn how to care for, pray with and be a blessing to those they meet,” said Kamil Metz, director of Literature Evangelism at the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Keeping Kosrae Prayed For and Cared For

We made the commitment to “our island” about a year ago and today, our Lake Union schools and members has raised over $10,000 to help with the construction of the Kosrae Seventh-day Adventist School gym. The advancement of God’s work in Kosrae will be an on-going effort. In the meantime, here is what we have accomplished so far. READ MORE
