Podcasters explore life and faith

From the early days of Adventist media ministries, beginning with evangelist H.M.S. Richards founding of the Voice of Prophecy in 1930, Adventists have utilized technology to broadcast the gospel to a mass audience. Read how podcasters in our region are continuing to push the gospel using newer technology.

Keeping the faith

week, I sure was hoping this wouldn't be the peak of my lifetime.

During her first year in college, Gabrielle Umana learned how to keep her faith on a public university campus.

A marriage re-arranged in heaven

A wedding invitation arrived in the post that day, along with other miscellaneous, less interesting items. After opening the ivory envelope, we passed the finely engraved card from family member to family member. Shock, disbelief, and even anger registered on the faces as, one by one, each person read the words. There was the name of my betrothed, Bimla, but alongside her name was the name of another man!

PROJECT SAFE CHURCH

Project Safe Church exists to train leaders to take protective action in response to the systemic crisis of abuse in the Seventh-day Adventist church. The Project involves training pastors and church leaders to create a visible reporting mechanism, as well as the ability to connect victims with trained practitioners.

Visit the Project Safe Church website for more information.
