Lake Union HERALD

THIS WEEK

AROUND THE UNION

We're sorry the Herald is delayed

We are sorry your Lake Union Herald is delayed

We are working closely with our printer to deliver your October issue of the Herald during this global pandemic. They are experiencing a shortage of workers so it will take slightly longer for your copy to reach you, hopefully by next week. Thank you for your patience.

Wisconsin gives Afghans a warm welcome

The desperate airlift out of Kabul had barely kicked into gear last month when a call went out to the State of Wisconsin's Volunteer Organization Active in Disaster group. The sudden collapse of the Afghan government meant there was an urgent need for clothing to help the displaced Afghans arriving with only what they had on them.

PROJECT SAFE CHURCH

Project Safe Church exists to train leaders to take protective action in response to the systemic crisis of abuse in the Seventh-day Adventist church. The Project involves training pastors and church leaders to create a visible reporting mechanism, as well as the ability to connect victims with trained practitioners.

Visit the Project Safe Church website for more information.

If you know of a student about to attend or is already on a public university campus in the Lake Union, you should reach out to the conference representative for help in providing an anchor in the young person's faith journey.

Visit our website for a list of conference representatives.
