We frequently hear the stories of people who are called to minister for God. Oftentimes, those stories are of preachers and missionaries, pastors and seminarians—not the sort of thing that touches the lives of so-called “ordinary” Christians.

But we are reminded that the call of God is on every life and a quick search of Scripture reveals this. The Apostle Paul wrote in the New Testament book of Thessalonians, “He called you to salvation when we told you the Good News; now you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Thess. 2:14).

Here at the Lake Union, our Savior has strengthened our faith through the mission of the Herald to tell the stories of what He is doing in the lives of His people. It is our prayer that as you read these accounts of “ordinary” people stepping out of their comfort zones to march forth boldly for Christ that you, too, will sense His purpose and call on your life in 2022.

Tuned to God's Call

One of the most respected professions a human can possess is that of physician. Other humans depend on a physician's knowledge often for their very life. It's hard work, and output of great expense and sacrifice, to attain that station in life.
