AROUND THE UNION

Publishing Ministry Still Going Strong 50 Years Later

If you were around during the seventies and eighties and lived in the Lake Union, you might remember PROJECT: Steps to Christ. It was in the Lake Union in the region of Chicagoland that this ministry, born out of a vision to take the gospel to every home through the mass mailing of Steps to Christ, made its first debut.

Photo of the Week

Lake Union Communication students and professionals attended the Society of Adventist Communicators convention, held Oct. 13-15 at the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists HQ in Columbia, Maryland. This was a great opportunity to learn and network. Pictured are several Andrews University students and professors, as well as Communication professionals from Indiana Conference, Lake Region Conference, Michigan Conference and the Lake Union. Next year, we look forward to seeing all our communicators in Springfield, Massachusetts!
