THIS WEEK

AROUND THE UNION

A Mission Trip. A Family Reunion. Lives Changed for Good.

As churches slowly rebound from the pandemic, Green Bay Seventh-day Adventist Church leaders felt it was time to do something to stir up spiritual revival not only in their own hearts, but also outside their local area.

Promotes Teamwork

Village Seventh-day Adventist Church, Village Adventist Elementary School 7 and 8th graders, and their parents united to build bonds, strengthen bodies, and appreciate God's handiwork on a trip to the remote Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness. The Minnesota wilderness area is over 1 million acres in size and contains over 1,000 miles of canoe routes to explore and enjoy.

"It was amusing to be on the opposite side of a TV show. I had moments of being amazed at just how far God has led us and how tremendously He has blessed us. When we were in the midst of our greatest struggles, I would have never thought we'd end up sharing our testimony on international television. God is good," says Darrell Thomas, who moved with his wife Sasha to Illinois last November.
