Soccer Tournament Chases Away Winter Blues and Attracts Community

To create a safe and healthy space for recreation for the family while minimizing anxiety and depression during the winter season, the Colby Hispanic Seventh-day Adventist Church in Wisconsin hosted a soccer tournament which brought the community together.

The soccer tournament was held Jan. 28 through March 31 with the participation of seven adult male teams and two mixed teams for ages 7 to 10 and 11 to 16. The final match was held March 31 at the Colby High School.

The Adventurer Club participated in the final ceremony, and this served as an opportunity to promote and register youth for the Adventurer Club. Church members wore the Global Youth Day shirt, "Show Up in the Cities," with the Adventurer Club's scarf as part of the community outreach strategy.
